Job Connect Recruitment Pty Ltd

1. Introduction

We manage personal information in accordance with the Privacy Act 1988 and Australian Privacy Principles. This condensed policy applies to information collected by Job Connect Recruitment Pty Ltd. Our Privacy Policy is available free of charge by referring to our website www.jobconnect.com.au.

We only collect information that is reasonably necessary for the proper performance of our activities or functions.

We do not collect personal information just because we think it could be useful at some future stage if we have no present need for it.

We may decline to collect unsolicited personal information from or about you and take steps to purge it from our systems.

If you have any questions relating to our Privacy Policy you may contact in writing.

1.1. APP Entity

Job Connect Recruitment Pty Ltd manages personal information, as an APP Entity, under the Australian Privacy Principles \(APPs\).

Because we are a contracted service provider to a range of Commonwealth, State and Territory government agencies, it sometimes becomes necessary for us to collect and manage personal information as an Agency under different privacy arrangements.

If you wish to know whether this applies to you, please contact us in writing.

1.2. Information Flow

When we collect your personal information:

- We check that it is reasonably necessary for our functions and activities as a recruitment agency.
- We check that it is current, complete and accurate. This will sometimes mean that we have to cross check the information that we collect from you with third parties;
- We record and hold your information in our electronic Information Record System hardcopies will remain within the confidential hardcopy file of the individual or organisation.
- In some instances with overseas recruitment your information may be disclosed to overseas recipients for the purposes of our functions or activities as a recruitment agency.
- We retrieve your information when we need to use or disclose it for our functions and activities as a recruitment agency. At that time, we check that it is current, complete, accurate and relevant. This will sometimes mean that we have to cross check the information that we collect from you with third parties once again - especially if some time has passed since we last checked.
- Subject to some exceptions, we permit you to access your personal information in accordance with APP:12 of the \(APPs\).

- We correct or attach associated statements to your personal information in accordance with APP:13 of the (APPs).
- We destroy or de-identify your personal information when it is no longer needed for any purpose for which it may be used or disclosed provided that it is lawful for us to do so. We do not destroy or de-identify information that is contained in a Commonwealth Record.

Our premises deploy workplace surveillance technologies externally for the purposes of the security of our staff and visitors.

4.5. Electronic Transactions

Sometimes, we collect personal information that individuals choose to give us via online forms or by email, for example when individuals:

- ask to be on an email list such as a job notification list;
- register as a site user to access facilities on our site such as a job notification board;

- make a written online enquiry or email us through our website;
- submit a resume by email or through our website;

It is important that you understand that there are risks associated with use of the Internet and you should take all appropriate steps to protect your personal information. It might help you to look at the OAIC's resource on Internet Communications and other Technologies

You can contact us by land line telephone or post if you have concerns about making contact via the Internet.

5. How your personal information is held

Personal information is held in our Information Record System until it is no longer needed for any purpose for which it may be used or disclosed at which time it will be de-identified or destroyed provided that it is lawful for us to do so.

We take a range of measures to protect your personal information from:

- misuse, interference and loss; and
- Unauthorised access, modification or disclosure.

5.1. Our Information Record System

Our records are stored electronically and confidentially and will at all times observe the best practices of our organisations secure records system and in compliance with the Australian Privacy Principles.

5.2. Information Security

At all times staff and management will follow the organisations secure records procedure system with regard to password protection, authorisation polices, portable storage devices and archiving. Training and implementation of these procedures is carried out on a constant basis to ensure compliance.

6. Disclosures

We may disclose your personal information for any of the purposes for which it is primarily held or for a lawful related purpose.

We may disclose your personal information where we are under a legal duty to do so.

Disclosure will usually be:

- internally and to our related entities
- to our Clients
- to Referees for suitability and screening purposes.

6.1. Related Purpose Disclosures

We outsource a number of services to contracted service suppliers (CSPs) from time to time. Our CSPs may see some of your personal information. Typically our CSPs would include:

- Software solutions providers;

- I.T. contractors and database designers and Internet service suppliers;
- Legal and other professional advisors;
- Insurance brokers, loss assessors and underwriters;
- Superannuation fund managers;
- Background checking and screening agents;

We take reasonable steps to ensure that terms of service with our CSPs recognise that we are bound by obligations to protect the privacy of your personal information and that they will not do anything that would cause us to breach those obligations.

6.2.Overseas Disclosures

Some of your personal information is likely to be disclosed to overseas recipients. We cannot guarantee that any recipient of your personal information will protect it to the standard to which it ought to be protected. The costs and difficulties of enforcement of privacy rights in foreign jurisdictions and the impracticability of attempting to enforce such rights in some jurisdictions will mean that in some instances, we will need to seek your consent to disclosure.

The likely countries, type of information disclosed and recipients are indicated, so far as is practicable, in the following table:

Table

| Country | Type of Information   | Likely Recipients   |
|---------|---|---|
| Various | Relevant employment information necessary for our functions and activities as a recruitment agency on behalf of our work/job seekers. | Clients seeking work/job seekers through our recruitment agency |

7. Access & Correction

Subject to some exceptions set out in privacy law, you can gain access to your personal information that we hold.

Important exceptions include:

- Evaluative opinion material obtained confidentially in the course of our performing reference checks; and access that would impact on the privacy rights of other people. In many cases evaluative material contained in references that we obtain will be collected under obligations of confidentiality that the person who gave us that information is entitled to expect will be observed. We do refuse access if it would breach confidentiality.

For more information about access to your information see our Access Policy [Links to level 2: Access Policy].

For more information about applying to correct your information see our Correction Policy [Links to level 2: Correction Policy].

7.1.Access Policy

If you wish to obtain access to your personal information you should contact our Privacy Co-ordinator. You will need to be in a position to verify your identity.

- Access to this information is free of charge

- We will require a reasonable time (usually 30 days) to access your information;
- Should we refuse to access your information for whatever reason you have the right to contact our Privacy Co-ordinator in writing to lodge your complaint.

7.2. Correction Policy

If you find that personal information that we hold about you is inaccurate, out of date, incomplete, irrelevant or misleading, you can ask us to correct it by contacting us.

We will take such steps as are reasonable in the circumstances to correct that information to ensure that, having regard to the purpose for which it is held, the information is accurate, up to date, complete, relevant and not misleading.

If we have disclosed personal information about you that is inaccurate, out of date, incomplete, irrelevant or misleading, you can ask us to notify the third parties to whom we made the disclosure and we will take such steps (if any) as are reasonable in the circumstances to give that notification unless it is impracticable or unlawful to do so.

- We will require a reasonable time (usually 30 days) to correct your information;
- Should we refuse to correct your information for whatever reason you have the right to contact our Privacy Co-ordinator in writing to lodge your complaint.

Complaints

You have a right to complain about our handling of your personal information if you believe that we have interfered with your privacy.

For more information see our Complaints Procedure [Links to level 2: Complaints Procedure].

7.3. Complaints procedure

If you are making a complaint about our handling of your personal information, it should first be made to us in writing.

You can make complaints about our handling of your personal information to our Privacy Co-ordinator, whose contact details are Craig Kelly Unit 21, 25 Ingelston Road, Tingalpa QLD 4173.

You can also make complaints to the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner [Links to OAIC Website]

Complaints may also be made to RCSA [Links to RCSA Website/Code Complaints Page], the industry association of which we are a member.

RCSA administers a Code of Conduct for the professional and ethical conduct of its members.

The RCSA Code is supported by rules for the resolution of disputes involving members.

NOTE: The Association Code and Dispute Resolution Rules do NOT constitute a recognised external dispute resolution scheme for the purposes of the APPs; but are primarily designed to regulate the good conduct of the Associations members.

When we receive your complaint:

- We will take steps to confirm the authenticity of the complaint and the contact details provided to us to ensure that we are responding to you or to a person whom you have authorised to receive information about your complaint;

- Upon confirmation we will write to you to acknowledge receipt and to confirm that we are handling your complaint in accordance with our policy.
- We may ask for clarification of certain aspects of the complaint and for further detail;
- We will consider the complaint and may make inquiries of people who can assist us to established what has happened and why;
- We will require a reasonable time (usually 30 days) to respond;
- If the complaint can be resolved by accessing the information concerned and correcting or updating this information then we will suggest these to you as possible solutions;
- If we believe that your complaint may be capable of some other solution we will suggest that solution to you, on a confidential and without prejudice basis in our response;

If the complaint cannot be resolved by means that we propose in our response, we will suggest that you take your complaint to any recognised external dispute resolution scheme to which we belong or to the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner [Links to OAIC Website].
